

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED AT THE CLOSING SESSION

Epworth League Convention One of the Most Successful Ever Held By the Washington District

DELEGATES ARE TAKEN THROUGH FACTORY

With last night's session, one of the most successful conventions ever held by the Washington District Epworth League closed at the Methodist Episcopal church. A number of the delegates returned home last evening, while some remained over until this morning.

The officers elected yesterday morning were installed at the evening session. Rev. J. M. Murray of Monongahela having charge of the installation ceremonies in the absence of the district superintendent, Dr. G. W. Terhush. The second vice president, J. C. Mace of Wellsburg, W. Va., presided at the evening session, and the choir of the church and H. B. Bosson rendered special music. Rev. J. Clarke Matteson, of Bridgeville, made an address on the topic "Paul or John Mark" in which he asked all too emulate the example of Paul rather than of John Mark. Following was adjournment with prayer and the singing of "God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Superintendent W. S. James of the Macbeth-Evans chimney factory conducted the delegates and a number of the local people through the glass plant.

In the afternoon an evangelistic service was conducted by Rev. S. O. Smith of Franklin. J. D. Keefer was in charge of a praise service, and J. C. Mace in charge of a quiet period.

The delegates thanked the Charleroi society for the able manner in which they were entertained. Before adjournment last night the Chautauqua salute was given for the Charleroi people by the delegates.

C.E. Convention Comes to Close

Next Year's Meeting Will Be Held at Waynesburg Church

The twenty-second annual convention of the Washington-Greene County Christian Endeavor Union held at California closed its three sessions last night with the next place of meeting set for June, 1911, in the First Presbyterian church at Waynesburg. Three medals were given—the first to the Coal Centre Presbyterian church for the largest delegation present, the second to the Monongahela Presbyterian church for the largest percent of members present and the third to the Windy Gap Presbyterian church for the largest number of members obtained during the last year.

The morning session was given over to reports of the various committees and the election of officers. They are: President, C. W. Parkinson, Waynesburg; vice president, James Rouston, Washington; secretary, Miss Florence Danley, West Finley township; corresponding secretary, Miss Bess Hughes, Washington; treasurer, J. W. Sneed, Washington.

Miss McDonough Elected. Miss Bernette McDonough, one of the successful grade teachers of the Fifth street school last year, has been re-elected for another term. Owing to a misunderstanding her name was not mentioned in Wednesday's issue of the paper as one of the successful applicants.

STATE CONSTABULARY RETURNS TO COUNTY

A detachment of State troopers arrived at Meadowlands in this county yesterday, where they will be located. Until last February two detachments were stationed in Washington county, but both were recalled to go to Philadelphia to aid in preserving order during the street car strike there. An effort has been made to get them back, and the detachment arrived yesterday.

FAYETTE COUNTY JURY APPROVES FREEING OF BELLE VERNON BRIDGE

Matter Now Rests With the Courts--Washington County Grand Jury Acted on Matter Some Time Ago

The Fayette county grand jury Thursday afternoon, after hearing 12 witnesses, reported in favor of making the Belle Vernon bridge a free thoroughfare. The Washington county grand jury rendered a similar decision several weeks ago. The matter is now up to the court for final approval. Belle Vernon residents were anxiously awaiting the finding of the Fayette jurors and were highly elated when that body reported in favor of a free bridge. The report was made shortly after 4 p. m. yesterday afternoon.

The board of viewers recommended the purchase of the bridge by the county and fixed the value at $50,000. One-half of this is paid by Washington county and the remainder by Fayette county. The viewers were:

Chas. B. Franks, of Leisering; John R. Bryne of Everson, and S. W. Henshaw of Uniontown. The Washington viewers were: D. M. Campbell, R. V. Johnson and D. S. Taylor.

The witnesses called before the grand jury, Thursday were: C. H. Truxal, as to the population within a radius of 10 miles of Belle Vernon; Hayes Walters, relative to traffic across the bridge; Frank Steen, with maps of the bridge; William Steele, regarding the hardship on merchants; Harvey Steele, about roads leading to the bridge; William Woods, regarding cattle driven across the bridge by farmers en route to market; I. Benjamin Rosensweig, as to loss of business by merchants, and W. C. Kettle, Dr. Nickel, James Heffran, W. S. Linderman and J. T. Roley, liveryman.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WILL OBSERVE FIELD DAY HERE

Plan to Send Speakers for Local Pulpits, Sunday, June 26--Subscriptions Will Be Received

The Anti-Saloon League has selected for its annual field day in Charleroi Sunday, June 26, and on that day will supply pulpits of local churches with Anti-Saloon League speakers, who will talk on the work being done by the league in the State and in the United States. The speakers who will appear have not been announced yet, but it is likely that Rev. Henry M. Chalfant, the editor of the Keystone Citizen, will be one of them. The Keystone Citizen is the State Anti-Saloon League paper. The speakers who will be sent here will divide up at the various churches, morning and evening. At the same time an offering will be taken, and subscriptions received for the furtherance of the work in the State. It is by these subscriptions that the Anti Saloon League carries on its work.

RING CONTEST FOR QUEEN OF CARNIVAL

Young Lady Receiving Largest Number of Votes to Get Ornament

As a special feature of the carnival which is to be held in Charleroi the week of June 20 for the benefit of the Charleroi Automobile patrol, and the firemen's organization, a diamond contest has been arranged. The representative of the Barkoot company, which is furnishing the shows for the carnival, was here last night and held a meeting with the local committee in charge. The ring was purchased from the jewelry establishment of J. B. Schafer last evening, and efforts will be made to have a number of young ladies enter the contest, the winner to be the one who receive the largest number of votes. The Barkoot company has the following attractions: Wild West show, Darktown Swells, Jesse James, Four-in-one, Trained Wild Animals, High Dive, Crazy House, Ferris Wheel, Flea Circus, Oriental Parlors, Mamie Show, Carrousel and Emo, the Turtle Boy.

INCORPORATION PAPERS ASKED

Mine Foremen and Fire Bosses Organize for Mutual Protection

Uniting the certified mine foremen and fire bosses of the State fraternally and the protection and improvement of conditions of members are among the reasons given in a petition filed in the Washington county courts yesterday for the incorporation of the "Great Mine of the Mine Foremen and Fire Bosses' Protective Association of Pennsylvania." A paragraph in the petition states that no intoxicating liquors shall be handled or sold by the association or any member nor shall liquors be permitted at any of the meetings.

The officers named in the petition are as follows: Frank D. Kirsch, worthy foreman; James C. Cameron, assistant worthy foreman; Jacob Jones, advisor; Joseph M. Kennedy, assistant advisor, all of Monongahela; John E. Hampson recording and financial secretary, and John Brady, treasurer, of Manow; Joseph Gamble, New Eagle; William M. Nicholas, Monongahela; John Rowe, Hazard; John L. Rae, Jr., and John Regan, Monongahela, trustees.

Not Enough Revenue.

The number of dogs assessed in Washington county is 7,074 of which 6,312 are males and 762 females. The amount of tax if all is paid derived from this would be $7,836. Sheep claims to the amount of $8,200 have been filed against this fund, and as not more than two-thirds of the tax is likely to be collected, a large portion of the sheep claims will have to be held over.

Entertains for June Bride

At her home on Lincoln avenue yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. D. Berryman entertained a party of ten at luncheon in honor of her sister, Miss Margaret Paxton of California, who is to be a June bride. The decorations were ferns and American Beauty roses. The affair was a brilliant social function.

AUTO PATROL ORDERED THROUGH BUICK AGENCY

Machine Will Be Listed at 22 Horse Power, and Equipment Will Be Latest and Most Up-to-Date in Style

MAY HAVE IT HERE BY FOURTH OF JULY

The automobile police patrol, for which a committee of officials have been receiving subscriptions for several weeks, was ordered from the agency of A. D. Spencer last night. The patrol wagon will be of the well known Buick make, and is to cost delivered $1,300. A special effort will be made by Mr. Spencer to have the wagon here by the Fourth of July, to use at that time in the parade.

The wagon will be provided with two bodies, one the patrol, and the other the regular five seat touring car body. The patrol body will be black and the other red. This is so arranged that trips can be taken if necessary into other territories, where it is not desired to carry the heavy patrol body. The car is to be listed at 22 horse power and of chain drive. It will have all the up-to-date equipment, including the glass front and speedometer. The upholstery will be black and the chassis cream color.

The firm of L. Glenscamp Sons and Co. of Pittsburgh will construct a patrol body, and according to their representative, will make a special effort to make it a model in design and construction.

The committee in charge of securing the machine is composed of Chief of Police C. W. Albright, Burgess George W. Risbeck, Councilmen Oscar C. Linn, Dr. A. O. Davis and W. R. Gaut.

Cantata Draws A Good Crowd

"Bethany" Pleasingly Rendered Under Direction of Prof. Daniel

Notwithstanding the inclement weather which prevailed last evening, a large and representative audience enjoyed the performance of the cantata "Bethany," at the First Presbyterian Church by the choir, under the direction of Prof. L. T. Daniel. The presentation of complete works, such as that of last evening, involves a vast amount of labor and sacrifice on the part of the participants, and those who braved the elements to listen to the beautiful story of the "Raising of Lazarus" are indebted to the choir of the First Presbyterian church for an evening's rare pleasure. The production in its entirety left little, if anything to be desired. Mrs. I. T. Daniel delighted her hearers with her work, her beautiful lyric soprano being heard to the best possible advantage. A very pleasing feature of her singing is her distinct articulation. Miss Helen Woodhall interpreted the part allotted to the contralto voice with much credit. Morris Stephens, the well-known tenor and teacher, established himself in the graces of his listeners by his splendid singing. He possesses a robust voice of good quality and wide range, which he handles in masterful style. The basso, E. Curtis Clark, made many friends on this, his first appearance in Charleroi. He sang the part of Jesus with good effect, displaying a deep and resonant voice of purity and power. Preceding the cantata, Messrs. Stephens and Clark were heard in solo and duet work, winning merited applause.

The work of Mrs. W. C. Fishburn at the piano, and Miss Lella Orange at the organ added materially to the evening's pleasure. At the conclusion of the cantata, the choir entertained the soloists, through the kindness of Mrs. Woodhall, at her home on Fallowfield avenue, where a delightful time was had.

Early Morning Fire In Stable

Discovered in Time and Extinguished Before It Gets A Good Start

What might have been a serious conflagration was prevented by the local fire department and volunteers by prompt response to a fire alarm this morning early. At about 1:20 a party coming home from the Bachelor Girls dance at Eldora Park, discovered smoke emanating from a stable in the rear of Monack's Fruit store on Fallowfield avenue between Fifth and Sixth streets, and turned in the alarm. The firemen responded promptly, and by the use of a few buckets of water succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Previous to the arrival of the firemen volunteers had by the aid of a bucket brigade kept the flames down, and would have soon had them out.

Henry McKean Stewart

Henry McKean Stewart, the 17 year old son, of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Stewart of Pittsburgh died at 7:45 o'clock last night at the East End Hospital, Pittsburgh after an operation performed for tonsillitis. The funeral will be from the home of the parents at 820 North Highland avenue. Mrs. Stewart, the mother of the boy, is a sister of John C., Andrew and W. R. McKean and Mrs. C. F. Thompson of Charleroi.

Services will be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence. The funeral party will leave Pittsburgh on the 9:50 train Sunday morning for Monongahela, to arrive there at 11:00, where the burial will take place.

Bachelor Girls Dance

The Bachelor Girls Club of Charleroi, held their first dance of the season at Eldora Park last evening. There were nearly a hundred couples present from Charleroi and many out-of-town places. It was a great social success.

Still Under the Ban

By applying the same process of computation that Former Congressman E. F. Acheson used to count votes for his slated candidates in his county conventions, the Washington Observer figures that Charleroi had 116 phantom voters out at the primary election Saturday. As the Observer claims Charleroi mustered 346 phantoms at the primaries two years ago, this reduction in the ranks ought to sweeten to Charleroi's credit, yet the Observer is more vindictive against the Magic City than ever, when it should rejoice that progress has been made in the direction of reform.

This is ungenerous. With the most progressive civic spirit of any town in the county, the leading Sunday school district in the Washington County Association, and a united church spirit throughout the town, Charleroi has been indulging in the hope that she had some sort of standing as a community in the ranks of the righteous, but the Observer saith not; consequently Charleroi must continue to be under the ban—of the Observer.

On the Way

Now that the freeing of the Spooners-Belle Vernon bridge has been approved by the Fayette county grand jury, another step has been made in the direction of removing obstacles to traffic that are important, primarily to the loyal sections involved, and secondarily to the whole section on both sides of the river. Free roads, free rivers and free bridges are essential in local traffic to realize the full measure of benefit to be derived therefrom.

As the Washington county grand jury has already approved the project, the next step will be to present the matter to the courts. From this step on is where the real tug of war will be encountered—the question of finance. These things however, are all in the course of events that must be countered and overcome. It is sufficient to state that the movement is well on the way.

Then and Now.

In marked contrast with the time when the Washington Observer used to facetiously remark at the time the Acheson slate of candidates was being framed for county officials, "As usual a candidate looms up from the river district" is its "holler" over the situation as it now sees it. In its issue of yesterday the Observer has the following plaintive wail:

"Another fact in connection with the results is that the river section practically secured every office. On the ticket are Tener, of Charleroi; Feeney, of Charleroi; Bentley of Monongahela; Anderson, of Venetia, which is considered river territory, every candidate but one. Washington had three candidates for Assembly but not one was nominated. The rural sections did not get a single man—unless Holland is considered such.

"There is a realization among the active politicians that the river section with the votes of Donora and Charleroi, particularly, are dominating Republican politics, while Washington with one-tenth the valuation of the county and with one-fifth of the Republican voters has not even a delegate to the State convention."

In the days of the Acheson domination river aspirants for official honors seldom got beyond the "looming" stage. Aside from the nomination of Frank Craven for Assembly the river district was unrepresented. Now, with John H. Moffitt county controller in addition to the list above mentioned, the river district is getting its proportionate representation. The voters now do the nominating instead of an official family at the county seat.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

The Washington Record is anxious to have it appear that a big delegation from their town is to head the party going from there to Harrisburg, but apparently is forgetful of the fact that Charleroi is the real starter of the movement.

A man may be pretty dead sure of hitting it right, whether he remarks that it's nice weather or bad weather.

Some men will even go to the extreme of having the floors of their houses built to sag down hill, so that when their collar button falls they always know where to find it.

Beating Patton seems to be the only amusement the heavy speculators can find in Wall street nowadays.

As a substitute for veils the Turks, in their effort to appear progressive might compel their women to wear auto goggles.

A college student seems to enjoy privileges refused others, such as being allowed to tie other men to the railroad tracks, yelling "Fire" in a crowded theatre, smashing windows of houses, and so forth, and so forth, ad infinitum.

"Lamb" as a name for the imposed upon in Wall street certainly fits perfectly. The poor individuals thus named, have about as much chance as that lowly animal.

A moonlight dance doesn't hardly seem appropriate on a rainy evening, but young people never realize the fact. They are too anxious to have the least semblance of moonlight.

Discovering sugar frauds seems to play a close second to committing them, as a popular amusement among Southern society.

WILL ATTEND STATE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

Joe Mason leaves tomorrow to attend the commencement exercises at the Pennsylvania State College from June 11 to 16. The graduating class at Penn State this year numbers over 160. Several splendid athletes graduate with 1910, including "Bull" McCleary from Charleroi, "Larry" Vorhis and "Heff" Hirschman from New York. When he returns from college Joe Mason will bring with him McCleary, Vorhis and McIlveen, State's graduate coach, to take part in the game here on June 18. On June 14 Joe will play on the State's Alumni team against the varsity nine in their annual game. "Lefty" McIlveen will pitch for the Alumni. Such players have been invited as "Birdie" Cree of the New York Americans, Bud Sharpe of the Boston Nationals, and Bob Coulson of the Altoona Tri-State team.

HowtoCurzmea, Pimples,Exe and Dandruff.

We desire to say that when we took the agency for Zemo, we were convinced that it was a valuable remedy for Eczema, pimples, and dandruff. Yet, we must frankly admit that Zemo has far exceeded our expectations as a treatment for skin diseases. We are pleased to state that we shall continue the agency as Zemo has given splendid results wherever recommended. Our customers like Zemo too, because it is a clean vegetable liquid for external use.

Zemo effects its cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linen and can be used freely on infants.

With every purchase, we give a booklet on skin disease explaining in some words how any person can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp diseases by this clean, scientific remedy.

The Co-Operative Store of Charleroi is selling goods lower than anyone in this valley. Its business is to save money for the people. It has reduced the cost of living in Charleroi and vicinity from 10 to 25 per cent. If it was not for the Co-Operative Store, groceries and produce would sell as high in Charleroi as in any other part of the country. The elite of the working class of Charleroi, banded together, are operating for their own benefit, and for the benefit of all the people. They own one of the largest business of its kind in the city. They are proud of it. It is a credit to them. It is the result of constant work and unselfishness. Every working-man in this city of toilers ought to give a push to such enterprise. THE TERRIBLE BATHOLITE.
Molten Rock That Bores Upward Through the Earth's Crust.
Batholite is a term invented by the great German geologist Eduard Suess to describe the gigantic intrusions of molten rock which, according to him, bore their way upward through the crust of the earth from the "eternal depths" below, cutting through the strata and folds of the mountains very much as a white hot soldering iron may be thrust through a plank, burning its way across the grain of the wood as if it were cheese.
These batholites lurk deep in the earth, where the temperature is thousands of degrees, and gradually melt their way to the surface above them. Generally they issue in the form of tremendous domes of hot rock, towering up to mountain heights and often giving birth to volcanoes. When a batholite, as sometimes happens does not reach the surface its roof opens in a network of fissures, lava pours out and a whole group of volcanoes appears at that point.
Suess has recognized the remains of many cooled batholites on various parts of the earth's surface and he says that the consolidated rest of the earth, even at the present day, may be exposed to these molten intrusions from below. The batholites bring up with them many minerals from the interior of the planet, and rich mines are often opened in the dikes that are thus formed.
Suess describes the rock about Boulder, Colo., as an ancient batholite, which covers 5,000 square kilometers of surface. But there are others still more prodigious in extent.
Sometimes they have been worn down nearly to the general level, but near Elkhorn the old batholite yet towers up to an elevation of 9,000 feet above the sea. The diamond dikes of South Africa have thus been thrust up from the profound depths of the earth, where there exists a laboratory of nature in which she performs what seem miracles to the petty inhabitants of the planet's surface.
The face of the moon shows us most clearly what batholites are capable of. The vast circular plains ringed with steep mountains, which make its surface so marvelous to look upon with a telescope, have, according to this view, been formed by intrusions of colossal batholites, and Suess calls them by the startling name of "smelting furnaces"—furnaces thousands of square miles in extent—in which the frame of that little world has been melted and dissolved like a snow bank lying in the path of a flow of molten iron.
And if we could remove the sedimentary accumulations of ages from the face of our world, says this astonishing German savant, we might find now hidden under our feet a host of the scared skeletons of ancient batholites, grander than any on the moon.—Garrett P. Serviss in New York American.
An Odd Nugget of Gold.
There have been many large and oddly shaped gold nuggets found in the United States and elsewhere, but the oddest of them all was that discovered at the Midhas mine, on Sulky gully, near Melbourne, Australia, in 1887. The nugget was flat and almost the exact counterpart in contour of a colossal human hand held open, with the exception of the thumb and forefinger, which were closed together in a manner so as to make it appear that the thumb was holding the finger in place. Its greatest length was twelve and a half inches and its greatest breadth eight inches. It was of the very purest gold, with but a little of foreign substances adhering, mostly between the "fingers," and weighed 617 ounces. It was found in the north-west main drive of the Midhas mine, 120 feet below the surface of the earth and at a spot only fifty feet from where the famous Lady Brassey nugget was discovered the year before. It weighed fifty-one pounds of pure gold.
Mme. Rejane at Rehearsal.
Mme. Rejane at one of her rehearsals was endeavoring to impress upon a young actor the necessity of a tragic expression.
"Put yourself in his place," she said. "But I have never been through such an experience," the other pleaded.
"Well, then," retorted the actress, "imagine you have lost 300 or 400 louis at baccarat and that you have been dismissed from the company."
His face fell.
"There you have it," said she. "Keep that expression and you will win."
For a young woman who could not weep to order she tried a heroic cure.
"Very well, I will take the part away from you. You are not pretty enough."
This had the desired effect, and the floodgates opened.
"Weep like that and you will be the bit of the piece," exclaimed Rejane triumphantly.—London M. A. P.
No Chance.
"Why don't you ask that young man up to tea some evening, dear?"
"I don't believe it would do any good, mother. He's a confirmed bachelor."—New York Journal.
Still Grieving.
"So she has lost her husband? Has she recovered from her grief yet?"
"Not yet. You know how slow those insurance companies are in settling."
Calamity is the opportunity of virtue and a spur to a great mind.

Puzzled the Packer.
The first organized work of women in a relief corps was led by Florence Nightingale in the Crimean war of 1855. So unaccustomed were people to that service at the time that it called out some curious comment. Writing of "Chinese" Gordon, Dr. Butler tells in his book, "Ten Great and Good Men," how the boys at Cambridge met the call upon them for hospital stores.

One day a letter came suddenly from the war office telling us that any warm clothes for the invalids at Scutari would be prized by Miss Florence Nightingale. At once in every college a committee was extemporized of leading undergraduates, charged to collect presents of dannel jackets, trousers, "blazers," rugs, greatcoats, furs, even sealskins.

In a few hours box after box was filled with these treasures, and all the boxes were kindly and gratuitously packed for us by the leading upholsterer of the town, his foreman simply remarking to me in a tone which General Gordon would have enjoyed:

"A nice consignment for a lady, sir."

Cause of Twilight.

Twilight is a phenomenon caused by atmospheric refraction. When the sun gets below the horizon we are not immediately plunged into the darkness of night. Although the sun is below our horizon, rays of solar light are bent or refracted by the terrestrial atmosphere and continue to furnish some slight illumination. The process continues with diminishing intensity until the sun is so far below the horizon that the refracting power of the atmosphere is no longer able to bend the rays enough to produce a visible effect. The time after sunset that the sun reaches such a position varies with the latitude of the place. There is less twilight at the tropic zone than at the temperate or frigid zone. This is due to less time taken by the sun's rays to pass through the atmosphere, at the tropic zone the sun's rays being perpendicular and at the temperate and frigid zones oblique.—New York American.

With a Grain of Salt.

The earliest record of the saying "with a grain of salt" dates back to the year 63 B. C., when the great Pompey entered the palace of Mithridates and discovered among his private papers the description of an antidote against poisons of all sorts, which was composed of pounded herbs. These, according to the recipe, were to be taken with a grain of salt. Whether this was meant seriously or as a warning sarcasm is not known, but thenceforth it became the custom to say that doubtful preparations should be taken with a grain of salt. From this the meaning got transferred to sayings of doubtful truth. "Attic salt" was a Greek synonym for wit or penetration, and the Latin word "sal" had somewhat of the same meaning. It is thus easy to see how the saying "cum grano salis" could have come to mean the necessity of accepting doubtful or suspicious statements "with a grain of salt."

Molokai and the Lepers.

The general idea of the leper settlement on the island of Molokai is wrong, says a writer in Harpers Weekly. Instead of the entire island being used for the leper colony the settlement comprises only eight square miles out of a total area of 261 square miles. It occupies a tongue of land on the northern side of Molokai. The north, east and west shores of this tiny spit are washed by the Pacific, while on the south side rise precipitous cliffs of from 1,800 to 4,000 feet, which make the isolation seem even more hopeless than the beautiful deep blue waters of the sea ever could. The most difficult and dangerous trail, constantly manned by government guards, foils escape, if it were ever contemplated, by the land side.

Stupid Husband of a Noted Singer.

Catalani's husband, a hand-ome Frenchman, was even more unimellectual than his wife—he was stupid. Once, having found the pitch of the piano too high, she said after the rehearsal to her husband, "The piano is too high. Will you see that it is made lower before the concert?" When the evening came Catalani was annoyed to find that the piano had not been altered. Her husband sent for the carpenter, who declared that he had sawed off two inches from each leg, as he had been ordered to do. "Surely it can't be too high now, my dear," said the stupid husband soothingly.

Through the Cracks.

When the celebrated divine Edward Irving was on a preaching tour in Scotland two Dumfries men of decided opinions went to hear him. When they left the hall one said to the other: "Well, Willie, what do you think?" "Oh," said the other contemptuously, "the man's cracked!"

The first speaker laid a quiet hand on his shoulder.

"Will," said he, "you'll often see a light peeping through a crack."

A Poor Player.

Griggs—So you got home from the club at midnight. Well, I suppose you told wife you had to work late at the office. Played upon her sympathies, eh? Briggs—Well—er—yes, but either her sympathies were out of tune or I'm a damned poor instrumentalist.—Boston Transcript.

Good and Sufficient Reason.

Editor—But, my good fellow, why do you bring this poem to me? Impecunious One—Well, sir, because I hadn't a stamp, sir.—London Tatler.

Opportunity seldom comes with a letter of introduction.

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED AT THE CLOSING SESSION

DELEGATES ARE TAKEN THROUGH FACTORY

With last night's session, one of the most successful conventions ever held by the Washington District Epworth League closed at the Methodist Episcopal church. A number of the delegates returned home last evening, while some remained over until this morning.

The officers elected yesterday morning were installed at the evening session, Rev. J. M. Murray of Monongahela having charge of the installation ceremonies in the absence of the district superintendent, Dr. G. W. Terbish. The second vice president, J. C. Mace of Wellsburg, W. Va., presided at the evening session, and the choir of the church and H. B. Bosson rendered special music. Rev. J. Clarke Matteson, of Bridgeville, made an address on the topic "Paul or John Mark" in which he asked all

The twenty-second annual convention of the Washington-Greene County Christian Endeavor Union held at California closed its three sessions last night with the next place of meeting set for June, 1911, in the First Presbyterian church at Waynesburg. Three medals were given—the first to the Coal Centre Presbyterian church for the largest delegation present, the second to the Monongahela Presbyterian church for the largest percent of members present and the third to the Windy Gap Presbyterian church for the largest number of members obtained during the last year.

The morning session was given over to reports of the various committees and the election of officers. They are: President, C. W. Parkinson, Waynesburg; vice president, James Rouston, Washington; secretary, Miss Florence Danley, West Finley township; corresponding secretary, Miss Bess Hughes, Washington; treasurer, J. W. Sneed, Washington.

Miss McDonough Elected.

Miss Bernette McDonough, one of the successful grade teachers of the Fifth street school last year, has been re-elected for another term. Owing to a misunderstanding her name was not mentioned in Wednesday's issue of the paper as one of the successful applicants.

STATE CONSTABULARY RETURNS TO COUNTY

A detachment of State troopers arrived at Meadowlands in this county yesterday, where they will be located. Until last February two detachments were stationed in Washington county, but both were recalled to go to Philadelphia to aid in preserving order during the street car strike there. An effort has been made to get them back, and the detachment arrived yesterday.

FAYETTE COUNTY JURY APPROVES FREEING OF BELLE VERNON BRIDGE

Matter Now Rests With the Courts--Washington County Grand Jury Acted on Matter Some Time Ago

The Fayette county grand jury Thursday afternoon, after hearing 12 witnesses, reported in favor of making the Belle Vernon bridge a free thoroughfare. The Washington county grand jury rendered a similar decision several weeks ago. The matter is now up to the court for final approval. Belle Vernon residents were anxiously awaiting the finding of the Fayette jurors and were highly elated when that body reported in favor of a free bridge. The report was made shortly after 4 p. m. yesterday afternoon.

The board of viewers recommended the purchase of the bridge by the county and fixed the value at $50,000. One-half of this is paid by Washington county and the remainder by Fayette county. The viewers were:

Chas. B. Franks, of Leisering; John R. Bryne, of Everson, and S. W. Henshaw of Uniontown. The Washington viewers were: D. M. Campbell, R. V. Johnson and D. S. Taylor.

The witnesses called before the grand jury, Thursday were: C. H. Truxal, as to the population within a radius of 10 miles of Belle Vernon; Hayes Walters, relative to traffic across the bridge; Frank Steen, with maps of the bridge; William Steele, regarding the hardship on merchants; Harvey Steele, about roads leading to the bridge; William Woods, regarding cattle driven across the bridge by farmers en route to market; I. Benjamin Rosenzweig, as to loss of business by merchants, and W. C. Kettle, Dr. Nickel, James Heffran, W. S. Linderman and J. T. Roley, liveryman.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WILL OBSERVE FIELD DAY HERE

Plan to Send Speakers for Local Pulpits, Sunday, June 26--Subscriptions Will Be Received

The Anti-Saloon League has selected for its annual field day in Charleroi Sunday, June 26, and on that day will supply pulpits of local churches with Anti-Saloon League speakers, who will talk on the work being done by the league in the State and in the United States. The speakers who will appear have not been announced yet, but it is likely that Rev. Henry M. Chalfant, the editor of the Keystone Citizen, will be one of them. The Keystone Citizen is the State Anti-Saloon League paper.

RING CONTEST FOR QUEEN OF CARNIVAL PAPERS ASKED

Young Lady Receiving Largest Number of Votes to Get Ornament

As a special feature of the carnival which is to be held in Charleroi the week of June 20 for the benefit of the Charleroi Automobile patrol, and the firemen's organization, a diamond contest has been arranged. The representative of the Barkoot company, which is furnishing the shows for the carnival, was here last night and held a meeting with the local committee in charge. The ring was purchased from the jewelry establishment of J. B. Schafer last evening, and efforts will be made to have a number of young ladies enter the contest, the winner to be the one who receives the largest number of votes. The Barkoot company has the following attractions: Wild West show, Darktown Swells, Jesse James, Four-in-one, Trained Wild Animals, High Dive, Crazy House, Ferris Wheel, Flea Circus, Oriental Parlors, Mamie Show, Carrousel and Emo, the Turtle Boy.

AUTO PATROL ORDERED THROUGH BUICK AGENCY

Machine Will Be Listed at 22 Horse Power, and Equipment Will Be Latest and Most Up-to-Date in Style

MAY HAVE IT HERE BY FOURTH OF JULY

The automobile police patrol, for which a committee of officials have been receiving subscriptions for several weeks, was ordered from the agency of A. D. Spencer last night. The patrol wagon will be of the well known Buick make, and is to cost delivered $1,300. A special effort will be made by Mr. Spencer to have the wagon here by the Fourth of July, to use at that time in the parade.

The wagon will be provided with two bodies, one the patrol, and the other the regular five seat touring car body. The patrol body will be black and the other red. This is so arranged that trips can be taken if necessary into other territories, where it is not desired to carry the heavy patrol body.

The car is to be listed at 22 horse power and of chain drive. It will have all the up-to-date equipment, including the glass front and speedometer. The upholstery will be black and the chassis cream color.

The firm of L. Gleencamp Sons and Co. of Pittsburg will construct a patrol body, and according to their representative, will make a special effort to make it a model in design and construction.

The committee in charge of securing the machine is composed of Chief of Police C. W. Albright, Burgess George W. Risbeck, Councilmen Oscar C. Linn, Dr. A. O. Davis and W. R. Gaut.

Cantata Draws A Good Crowd Early Morning Fire In Stable

"Bethany" Pleasingly Rendered Under Direction of Prof. Daniel

Notwithstanding the inclement weather which prevailed last evening, a large and representative audience enjoyed the performance of the cantata "Bethany," at the First Presbyterian Church by the choir, under the direction of Prof. L. T. Daniel. The presentation of complete works, such as that of last evening, involves a vast amount of labor and sacrifice on the part of the participants, and those who braved the elements to listen to the beautiful story of the "Raising of Lazarus" are indebted to the choir of the First Presbyterian church for an evening's rare pleasure. The production in its entirety left little, if anything to be desired. Mrs. I. T. Daniel delighted her hearers with her work, her beautiful lyric soprano being heard to the best possible advantage. A very pleasing feature of her singing is her distinct articulation. Miss Helen Woodhall interpreted the part allotted to the contralto voice with much credit. Morris Stephens, the well-known tenor and teacher, established himself in the graces of his listeners by his splendid singing. He possesses a robust voice of good quality and wide range, which he handles in masterful style. The basso, E. Curtis Clark, made many friends on this, his first appearance in Charleroi. He sang the part of Jesus with good effect, displaying a deep and resonant voice of purity and power. Preceding the cantata, Messrs. Stephens and Clark were heard in solo and duet work, winning merited applause.

The work of Mrs. W. C. Fishburn at the piano, and Miss Leila Orange at the organ added materially to the evening's pleasure. At the conclusion of the cantata, the choir entertained the soloists, through the kindness of Mrs. Woodhall, at her home on Fallowfield avenue, where a delightful time was had.

Still Under the Ban

By applying the same process of computation that Former Congressman E. F. Acheson used to count votes for his slated candidates in his county conventions, the Washington Observer figures that Charleroi had 116 phantom voters out at the primary election Saturday. As the Observer claims Charleroi mustered 346 phantom voters at the primaries two years ago, this reduction in the ranks ought to divert to Charleroi's credit, yet the Observer is more vindictive against the Magic City than ever, when it should rejoice that progress has been made in the direction of reform.

This is ungenerous. With the most progressive civic spirit of any town in the county, the leading Sunday school district in the Washington County Association, and a united church spirit throughout the town, Charleroi has been indulging in the hope that she had some sort of standing as a community in the ranks of the righteous, but the Observer saith not; consequently Charleroi must continue to be under the ban—of the Observer.

On the Way

Now that the freeing of the Speers-Belle Vernon bridge has been approved by the Fayette county grand jury, another step has been made in the direction of removing obstacles to traffic that are important, primarily to the loyal sections involved, and secondarily to the whole section on both sides of the river. Free roads, free rivers and free bridges are essential in local traffic to realize the full measure of benefit to be derived therefrom.

As the Washington county grand jury has already approved the project, the next step will be to present the matter to the courts. From this step on is where the real tug of war will be encountered—the question of finance. These things however, are all in the course of events that must be countered and overcome. It is sufficient to state that the movement is well on the way.

Then and Now.

In marked contrast with the time when the Washington Observer used to facetiously remark at the time the Acheson slate of candidates was being framed for county officials, "As usual a candidate looms up from the river district" is its "holler" over the situation as it now sees it. In its issue of yesterday the Observer has the following plaintive wail:

"Another fact in connection with the results is that the river section practically secured every office. On the ticket are Tener, of Charleroi; Feeney, of Charleroi; Bentley of Monongahela; Anderson, of Venetia, which is considered river territory, every candidate but one. Washington had three candidates for Assembly but not one was nominated. The rural sections did not get a single man—unless Holland is considered such.

"There is a realization among the active politicians that the river section with the votes of Donora and Charleroi, particularly, are dominating Republican politics, while Washington with one-tenth the valuation of the county and with one-fifth of the Republican voters has not even a delegate to the State convention."

In the days of the Acheson domination river sentiment for official honors seldom got beyond the "looming" stage. Aside from the nomination of Frank Craven for Assembly the river district was unrepresented. Now, with John H. Moffitt county controller in addition to the list above mentioned, the river district is getting its proportionate representation. The voters now do the nominating instead of an official family at the county seat.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

The Washington Record is anxious to have it appear that a big delegation from their town is to head the party going from there to Harrisburg, but apparently is forgetful of the fact that Charleroi is the real starter of the movement.

A man may be pretty dead sure of hitting it right, whether he remarks that it's nice weather or bad weather.

Some men will even go to the extreme of having the floors of their houses built to sag down hill, so that when their collar button falls they always know where to find it.

Beating Patton seems to be the only amusement the heavy speculators can find in Wall street nowadays.

As a substitute for veils the Turks, in their effort to appear progressive might compel their women to wear auto goggles.

A college student seems to enjoy privileges refused others, such as being allowed to tie other men to the railroad tracks, yelling "Fue" in a crowded theatre, smashing windows of houses, and so forth, and so forth, ad infinitum.

"Lamb" as a name for the imposed upon in Wall street certainly fits perfectly. The poor individuals thus named, have about as much chance as that lowly animal.

A moonlight dance doesn't hardly seem appropriate on a rainy evening, but young people never realize the fact. They are too anxious to have the least semblance of moonlight.

Discovering sugar frauds seems to play a close second to committing them, as a popular amusement among Southern society.

WILL ATTEND STATE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

Joe Mason leaves tomorrow to attend the commencement exercises at the Pennsylvania State College from June 11 to 16. The graduating class at Penn State this year numbers over 160. Several splendid athletes graduate with 1910, including "Bull" McCleary from Charleroi, "Larry" Vorhis and "Heff" Hirschman from New York. When he returns from college Joe Mason will bring with him McCleary, Vorhis and McIlveen, State's graduate coach, to take part in the game here on June 18. On June 14 Joe will play on the State's Alumni team against the varsity nine in their annual game. "Lefty" McIlveen will pitch for the Alumni. Such players have been invited as "Birdie" Cree of the New York Americans, Bud Sharpe of the Boston Nationals, and Bob Coulson of the Altoona Tri-State team.

How to Cure Measles, Pimples, Eczema and Dandruff.

We desire to say that when we took the agency for Zemo, we were convinced that it was a valuable remedy for Eczema, pimples, and dandruff. Yet, we must frankly admit that Zemo has far exceeded our expectations as a treatment for skin diseases. We are pleased to state that we shall continue the agency as Zemo has given splendid results wherever recommended. Our customers like Zemo too, because it is a clean vegetable liquid for external use.

Zemo effects its cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linen and can be used freely on infants.

With every purchase, we give a booklet on skin disease explaining in some words how any person can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp diseases by this clear, scientific remedy. Piper Bros.

THE TERRIBLE BATHOLITE.

Molten Rock That Bores Upward Through the Earth's Crust.

Batholite is a term invented by the great German geologist Eduard Suess to describe the gigantic intrusions of molten rock which, according to him, bore their way upward through the crust of the earth from the "eternal depths" below, cutting through the strata and folds of the mountains very much as a white hot soldering iron may be thrust through a plank, burning its way across the grain of the wood as if it were cheese.

These batholites lurk deep in the earth, where the temperature is thousands of degrees, and gradually melt their way to the surface above them. Generally they issue in the form of tremendous domes of hot rock, towering up to mountain heights and often giving birth to volcanoes. When a batholite, as sometimes happens, does not reach the surface its roof opens in a network of fissures, lava pours out and a whole group of volcanoes appears at that point.

Suess has recognized the remains of many cooled batholites on various parts of the earth's surface, and he says that the consolidated crust of the earth, even at the present day, may be exposed to these mighty intrusions from below. The batholites bring up with them many metals from the interior of the planet, and rich mines are often opened in the dikes that are thus formed.

Suess describes the rock about Boulder, Colo., as an ancient batholite, which covers 5,000 square kilometers of surface. But there are others still more prodigious in extent.

Sometimes they have been worn down nearly to the general level, but near Elkhorn the old batholite yet towers up to an elevation of 10,000 feet above the sea. The diamond dikes of South Africa have thus been thrust up from the profound depths of the earth, where there exists a laboratory of nature in which she performs what seem miracles to the petty inhabitants of the planet's surface.

The face of the moon shows us most clearly what batholites are capable of. The vast circular plains ringed with steep mountains, which make its surface so marvelous to look upon with a telescope, have, according to this view, been formed by intrusions of colossal batholites, and Suess calls them by the startling name of "smelting furnaces"—furnaces thousands of square miles in extent—in which the frame of that little world has been melted and dissolved like a snow bank lying in the path of a flow of molten iron.

And if we could remove the sedimentary accumulations of ages from the face of our world, says this astonishing German savant, we might find now hidden under our feet a of the seared skeletons of ancient batholites, grander than any on the moon.—Garrett P. Serviss in New York American.

An Odd Nugget of Gold.

There have been many large and oddly shaped gold nuggets found in the United States and elsewhere, but the oddest of them all was that discovered at the Midhas mine, on Salky gully, near Melbourne, Australia, in 1887. The nugget was flat and almost the exact counterpart in contour of a colossal human hand held open, with the exception of the thumb and forefinger, which were closed together in a manner so as to make it appear that the thumb was holding the finger in place. Its greatest length was twelve and a half inches and its greatest breadth eight inches. It was of the very purest gold, with but a little of foreign substances adhering, mostly between the "fingers," and weighed 617 ounces. It was found in the north-west main drive of the Midhas mine, 120 feet below the surface of the earth and at a spot only fifty feet from where the famous Lady Brassey nugget was discovered the year before. It weighed fifty-one pounds of pure gold.

Miss Rejane at Rehearsal.

Miss Rejane at one of her rehearsals was endeavoring to impress upon a young actor the necessity of a tragic expression.

"Put yourself in his place," she said.

"But I have never been through such an experience," the other pleaded.

"Well, then," retorted the actress, "imagine you have lost 300 or 400 louis at baccarat and that you have been discredited from the company."

His face fell.

"There you have it," said she. "Keep that expression and you will win."

For a young woman who could not weep to order she tried a heroic cure.

"Very well. I will take the part away from you. You are not pretty enough."

This had the desired effect, and the floodgates opened.

"Weep like that and you will be the hit of the piece," exclaimed Rejane triumphantly.—London M. A. P.

No Chance.

"Why don't you ask that young man up to tea some evening, dear?"

"I don't believe it would do any good, mother. He's a confirmed bachelor."—New York Journal.

Still Grieving.

"So she has lost her husband? Has she recovered from her grief yet?"

"Not yet. You know how slow those insurance companies are in settling."

Calamity is the opportunity of virtue and a spur to a great mind.

Puzzled the Packen.
The first organized work of women in a relief corps was led by Florence Nightingale in the Crimean war of 1853. So unaccustomed were people to that service at the time that it called out some curious comment. Writing of "Christie" Gordon, Dr. Duguet says in his book, "Ten Great and Good Men," how the boys at Cambridge met the call upon them for hospital stores. One day a letter came suddenly from the war office telling us that any warm clothes for the invalids at Scutari would be prized by Miss Florence Nightingale. At once in every college a committee was extemporized of leading undergraduates, charged to collect presents of flannel jackets, trousers "blazers," rugs, greatcoats, furs, even sealskins. In a few hours box after box was filled with these treasures, and all the boxes were kindly and gratuitously packed for us by the leading upholsterer of the town, his foreman simply remarking to me in a tone which General Gordon would have enjoyed: "A nice consignment for a lady, sir."

Cause of Twilight.
Twilight is a phenomenon caused by atmospheric refraction. When the sun gets below the horizon we are not immediately plunged into the darkness of night. Although the sun is below our horizon, rays of solar light are bent or refracted by the terrestrial atmosphere and continue to furnish some slight illumination. The process continues with diminishing intensity until the sun is so far below the horizon that the refracting power of the atmosphere is no longer able to bend the rays enough to produce a visible effect. The time after sunset that the sun reaches such a position varies with the latitude of the place. There is less twilight at the tropic zone than at the temperate or frigid zone. This is due to less time taken by the sun's rays to pass through the atmosphere at the tropic zone the sun's rays being perpendicular and at the temperate and frigid zones oblique.—New York American.

With a Grain of Salt.
The earliest record of the saying "with a grain of salt" dates back to the year 63 B. C. when the great Pompey entered the palace of Mithridates and discovered among his private papers the description of an antidote against poisons of all sorts, which was composed of pounded herbs. These according to the recipe, were to be taken with a grain of salt. Whether this was meant seriously or as a warning sarcasm is not known but thenceforth it became the custom to say that doubtful preparations should be taken with a grain of salt. From this the meaning got transferred to sayings of doubtful truth. "Attic salt" was a Greek synonym for wit or penetration, and the Latin word "sal" had somewhat of the same meaning. It is thus easy to see how the saying "cum grano salis" could have come to mean the necessity of accepting doubtful or suspicious statements "with a grain of salt."

Molokai and the Lepers.
The general idea of the leper settlement on the island of Molokai is wrong, says a writer in Harper's Weekly. Instead of the entire island being used for the leper colony the settlement comprises only eight square miles out of a total area of 261 square miles. It occupies a tongue of land on the northern side of Molokai. The north, east and west shores of this tiny spit are washed by the Pacific. While on the south side rise precipitous cliffs of from 1,500 to 4,000 feet, which make the isolation seem even more hopeless than the beautiful deep blue waters of the sea ever could. The most difficult and dangerous trail, constantly manned by government guards, foils escape, if it were ever contemplated, by the land side.

Stupid Husband of a Noted Singer.
Catalani's husband, a handsome Frenchman, was even more unintellectual than his wife—he was stupid. Once, having found the pitch of the piano too high, she said after the rehearsal to her husband. "The piano is too high. Will you see that it is made lower before the concert?" When the evening came Catalani was annoyed to find that the piano had not been altered. Her husband sent for the carpenter, who declared that he had sawed off two inches from each leg, as he had been ordered to do. "Surely it can't be too high now, my dear," said the stupid husband soothingly.

Through the Cracks.
When the celebrated divine Edward Irving was on a preaching tour in Scotland two Dumfries men of decided opinions went to hear him. When they left the hall one said to the other. "Well, Willie, what do you think?" "Oh," said the other contemptuously, "the man's cracked!" The first speaker laid a quiet hand on his shoulder. "Will," said he, "you'll often see a light peeping through a crack."

A Poor Player.
Griggs—So you got home from the club at midnight. Well, I suppose you told Willie you had to work late at the office. Played upon her sympathies, eh? Briggs—Well—er—yes, but either her sympathies were out of tune or I'm a damned poor instrumentalist.—DUSTY THUNDER.

Good and Sufficient Reason.
Editor—But, my good fellow, why do you bring this poem to me? Impeccable One—Well, sir, because I hadn't a stamp, sir.—London Tatler.

Opportunity seldom comes with a letter of introduction.
